Attitude/ History/ Background/Relationships:

Hypothetically, almost came to life with Disney, BUT she was born 15 minutes earlier & woke up in a cottage in the forest- with all of the little animals around her, licking her awake. Walt Disney wasn't aware of her and all anyone ever talked about was her twin, SNOW WHITE, the one we have all come to know and love. Snowey attracts animals to her, wherever she goes. She sings when she talks. Snowey's only situation, is she has TERETS. She has been taught that profanity can offend people, so she has labored to learn how to deal with her condition by training her brain to use NON-PROFANE words. She is beautiful and kind and..... she has her outbursts.

Motivation:

To save all the animals in the forest and to meet a handsome prince! One who will accept her imperfections and love her anyway.
