Attitude/ History/ Background/Relationships:

Grew up without a mother. Her father was on the run and taught her how to survive and not to be a follower. She sought refuge with the outcast of the land and learned how to live in the bog. She fights for justice for all women oppressed and who cannot speak for themselves. She is considered a heretic and if caught she could be burned at the stake. She triumphs and has fire in her eyes! She is passionate and full of conviction with every movement and calculated maneuver. She incites riots of triumph with her BATTLE CRIES! She is admired and feared in her own circles.

(Katy Happenstance and Amelia Badelia are her future bloodline females).

Motivation:

To be the voice of justice for women. To change the trajectory of the plight of women, so they may not be property and owned like cattle. She is just a bit too early to see this come to fruition, but the seeds have to start somewhere. SHE IS WILD FIRE!
